

I James Bradbury of Widdham in the County of Cumberland physician, possessing a sound mind, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, having I trust given myself away to the Lord. many years since, I feel it my duty to dispose of my worldly property in the following manner.

What debts I may owe it is my wish they may be paid.

In the first place I give to my Son James W. one gold ring valued at five dollars—motto "A father's gift". To Samuel all Bradbury another of the same kind; which together with the sums expended for their education I consider to be their part of my present property. To my daughter Clarissa Ann Paulson I give her another gold ring of the same value and motto and also the sum of Five hundred dollars.

I give and bequeath to my wife Nancy all the furniture that is in the house together with what she has purchased with ^{her} own money, also all my personal
