

view all that is worth viewing, I have not as yet seen the Lyceum the Church surpasses my expectations not exactly in external beauty but in workmanship

A very sad accident happened at Wintthrop on Wednesday last (a town through which we passed) the people were raising a frame for a meeting house ~~and~~ nearly completed raising when one of the beams on which were 27 persons broke 4, 0 of them fell 3 of which have since died well others so much bruised as to remain still in a doubtful state of recovery, may we all be mindful of the uncertainty of life with much love to you all and to my sisters brother and aunt not forgetting aunt Molly and aunt
