

for all demands against him at the rate of about Sixty eight cents on the dollar.

Mr. Morse & I have accepted that per centage on their demands and I am authorized by the friends of Mr. Fin to make you the same offer which is the most that can possibly be raised now or hereafter to satisfy his demands. you are certain by the assignment of not getting more than 50% et. and and not get that under a year or at least a great part of it and by the present offer you get nearly ^{one} half more in cash as soon as you will answer this letter and besides Mr. Fin wishes me to say to you that if you do this he shall soon be in Boston and will settle with you for the note. This relates only to the acct.

He expresses to you the most cordial thanks for your former favours and if fortune favours him again in business you shall before long be satisfied for the balance of your demand or that that you deduct. For the fulfilment of this promise he pledges his word and honor and says he shall ever hold in greatfull remembrance this kind and generous act as it will be a testimony the truth of that noble adage a friend in need is a friend indeed.
Do not neglect to write the moment this comes to
