

J. P. Brown Esq,

Hallsville June 15. 1843

Dear Sir,

I believe I requested you to adjourn to the 20th. I find I shall not be able to be with you at that time, as some business has come up which it is important to settle before I leave home. I have also business with C. S. Norcross, who was to give me notice when he should be ready, but I have not heard from him. Perhaps you had better adjourn one week, and if want further respite, I will write you. Do you hear anything from V. I should like to know also if C. has any money in the mill which belongs to me. If not I must bring the whole, if V. will not take the rest.

On Monday last Mrs V. had a little daughter. Both are doing well as yet. I hope you and yours are well.

Your friend &c
Chas. Vaughan
