

Hallowell. ^{had to go} ^{to my sons}

Dear Cousin I am now in Hallowell but expect to return home next week. I am very sorry that I could not pay you a visit before I went home the weather proved so cold and I was very unwell that I could not come and the going got so bad but I hope you will make us a visit next Summer.

I shall be happy to see you every time give my love to Mr Mann and all the family yours with haste

Jurard Getson