

Headfield July 17-55

At Mr Davis,

Dear Husband and boys at home,

Myself and Emma arrived here last night at about four o'clock. Thus far we have been finely favored and had a delightful journey and visits. Every one seems kind and glad to see us.

Emma bears her rides well, much better than I feared, her appetite is improving & thinks and her night-sweats are much less than they were. We left Doctor Kupsels Sunday about nine in the morning, and had a pleasant ride to Mrs. ^HHurtwells, got there about three o'clock, found Mrs H. and the girls well and happy to see us, stopped till yesterday after dinner.

My plans are to leave here this afternoon for Col. Mans, and remain there until Friday Morning, and then leave for Gardiner and take the Noon train for Brunswick.

I am uneasy about you at home. You cannot be very comfortable, to wait up yourself in this hot weather and work as I fear you will. Do get aunt Betsey, and be comfortable.
