

Hallowell Nov 79

My dear Husband

I recd your kind letter soon after written, glad to hear of the safety of our goods &c we leave here tomorrow morn for Winthrop where I intend staying till Tuesday morn, when I intend taking the cars for Boston Wednesday night at 5 o'clock shall take the same train of cars I took last summer, so I shall hope to meet you at the depot, in Thursday noon, I shall send to the boys saying what day I intend being there I hope to meet aunt Black, I have had very good visits at E's and real good one here, went to obsequies yesterday and called at Hallowell, Susan & Alden are delighted with their present,
 (the Thistle) send much love to you,

Winthrop 17th Saturday

A beautiful morning this,

We are now at Uncle Clark's all appear very glad to see us and enjoy our visit, The weather ~~has~~ has been very fine for the week past and still is, last Monday we had not seen the sun for 7 days

Uncle and Aunt send much love to you

Give the children for me, expect to present ourselves very soon children very well, perfectly happy having a capital time, Mark mocks the hens crows and every thing he hear he can hardly go the car whistle, the he tries to call a jist come in says of Mark "lean Fish"

I have written to the boys ^{in 5 days} that I shall be there in Boston Tuesday after noon, and leave ^{on} Wednesday eve
 I am very well, In haste with much love Yrs
 Fannie
