

when you arrive you may have no difficulty in finding the way - as soon as the wind blows I shall commence shoveling and opening the gates well!! - here are all of us looking to-day & the two families are weeping & the Boys are weeping! Board.

Gleason Morse came home from Augusta Saturday
he says things move along very quietly this winter in Gov. Cassin's views upon the freetown were admirably stated. do not think they were.

Gov. Miller ~~is~~ by to hear it. I always thought that the removing of Judge Davis was one of the greatest outrages that has been committed in this country considering the principal circumstances
