

a complete College of Theological exercise, and come out after all, only the shadows of a Minister. God must call the man to the work of the gospel ministry and he must have the Spirit of Christ in him, or he can be "only the shadow of a minister". We have great reason to fear, that there are many ministers by profession, who have little more to prove themselves called by God than their education. Such can be no more than "shadows". My dear Sir, it is not a small thing to be called to the work of the gospel ministry, by the "Great Head" of the church. No. It is the highest calling, and the most glorious ever made to man. I often fear that I can before I was sent. I think, however, that I love His cause, & cannot rest, unless I try to publish salvation to dying sinners, when my health will admit of it. As to Abolition; Abolition, I implore you they are at a very low ebb in this place. You know, my Sir, I can do nothing here alone, and seem disposed to find a helping hand in these things. I was very highly gratified to receive a letter from our young Dr Julian Thoma, and think it a kind providence, that God has, not only converted him and given him a desire to preach the gospel to his countrymen, but has thrown him into your path.

I think he must be quite a help to you in acquiring the Chinese language, as you have the privilege (I presume) of conversing with him daily. The proficiency which he has made in the English studies since he came to this country, is certainly very great, judging from his late address to me. My the Lord make him eminently useful, and a very successful missionary to his China. But God is working according to the "counsels of his own will" and the earth will soon be full of his glory. I have thought that the difficulties between China & England might be avocated, so as to assist in opening an effectual door, for the full and free introduction of the gospel to "the perishing millions. Who knows?" God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform. The Catholics can only go the length of saying God has purposed they may. He orders all things: "The wrath of man shall praise him and the remainder of that wrath will
