

Dipmont Jan 7. 10 - 1851

Sir. I some time since sent you an Exp^{re} sheet v. Juvel of Monticello, and you wrote me he was poor & had disclosed & would again, if pressed. & the best he would do, would give a note for $10.00 only, & pay your fees. - I then wrote you to take it, if it was the best you could do & discharge the Exp^{re} since I have heard nothing from you. - will you write and inform me, if you have been so fortunate as to obtain and collect the note, which I hope you have if so. I will take measures to send and get it or write for you to send it by mail & I will discharge the Exp^{re} to you

Respectfully yours J. G. Johnston
