

munication entirely to yourself. not mentioning it even to the Professor as it is not common for females to move in such matters, we should prefer to move in a very quiet way, not even naming to those about us that you came at our request.
You will also oblige us by giving an early reply to this letter, and if you could name a time when you would be here it would be convenient for us to know it a day or two before your arrival.

Very respectfully
Your friends

Harrriet Shad
M. Smith,

Mrs Henry Smith from Old Town is at present visiting here - and desires an affectionate remembrance to you.

Please direct your answer to Mrs. Harrriet Shad Care Gen. S. Shad.

If you should have made your arrangements to come next Sab. we shall be glad to see you -
