

Foxcroft August 30th 1850

Gentlemen

You are hereby notified that Charlotte Sturdevant wife of Warren Sturdevant whose legal settlement is in your town, on the first of July last fell into distress by sickness in this town, and in want of immediate relief which was furnished her by the town of Foxcroft on the account and at the proper charge of the town of Wayne which expense is charged to your town of Wayne to the amount of $16,49^{cts}, there is $6,75^{cts} more claimed by persons for her support at that time which perhaps may be collectable if insisted on

You are therefore requested to pay all legal bills forthwith Please give us an answer on receipt of this as it is the second notice sent you, and save us further trouble

Yours Respectfully

J. H. Chamberlain
