

Bridge not leaving one speck of covering and and and filling up the road rendering impassable he tearing down Glitons house his wife and 2 children being in it Escaped unhurt worth mention taken Alpheus Crocketts barn and one end of his house with about all of them slathing and provisions lay in it to the the ravages of the whirl in one minute passing to Whitneys tearing up the most of his orchard taken his barn and shed the roof of his house leaving them to the mercies of the world passing to Mr Sachols striking his barn thence to McJanings not leaving one splinter of his barn cut up in the whirl passed to to Wilkinsons Brownville town for him and five other in vicinity steering from there in the course for Lincoln village and its fury increased and the extent of Damage cannot yet be ascertained our narrow escape seems almost an impossibility such an excitement never was known here our time has been spent mostly in viewing and repairing the ruins its fury went about 3 miles a minute Mary and family is all well and all the rest grass and grain is as good as usual please let your father see this please write the first chance and room for no more

M. P. Glover

Should like if your father could come and help me may I shall sit home for three weeks