

such a town known in Bengay again we hardly met a person in the street ~~to~~ without enquiring on the subject of religion; the revival commenced about 4 months ago, and extends through Congregationalists Presbyterians & Methodists; some of the Unitarians think it strange that all other denominations are frightened while some are thinking there is such a thing as experimental religion; and some of their leading men think it best not to build their meetinghouse the present season.

I learnt that S B Merrill & his wife are very much troubled about their own state; it is supposed that so on 40 one under serious convictions and a large influence among the influential part of the community; feelings denies the hope that Bengay should become a thing of Christians is very encouraging considering the feelings it has over a large portion of this country - We may soon hope to see the day when Jews shall rightly bring of nations.

I shall go to Bdr Town Sabbath eve where I expect to remain till June next; if you write me direct your letters to Milo as it will be more agreeable to me. Love them then then at Bdr Town

Mr Greenleaf has written very sensibly and given me as much of his mind as I could expect for which I am very much obliged to him.
It appears from your letter that unless I will not continue till I shall be able to go to Wells give my love to him & if I am not permitted to see him ^{here} I hope in the mercy of God to meet him before parting is intended.
Mr G. & family here we all meet.

Remember me to all the family & friends - Tell Marta An I shall expect a letter from her when her health gets well from your dearful Son & Sister
