

Ballist & Coe 18.4.23
D W Dorman Esq,
Sir

Your of the 4th is before me, in relation to the debt which you do not acknowledge the receipt of, it was a Mortgage debt given by Jacob Kimball, it was sent about three weeks ago in the care of Columbus Bacon to be left at Fishers Tavern, will you have the goodness to enquire of at that place if any such letter left at that place or find any clue to it, you will also search the records and see if there is any previous incumbrance on J Kimball property. and forward by return mail, by so doing you will obly

Yours Respectfully
