Washburn is a town in Aroostook County, Maine, United States. It was incorporated on February 25, 1861. During the history of the town of Washburn, there have been four post offices.

Briefly, the history of these four is as follows:

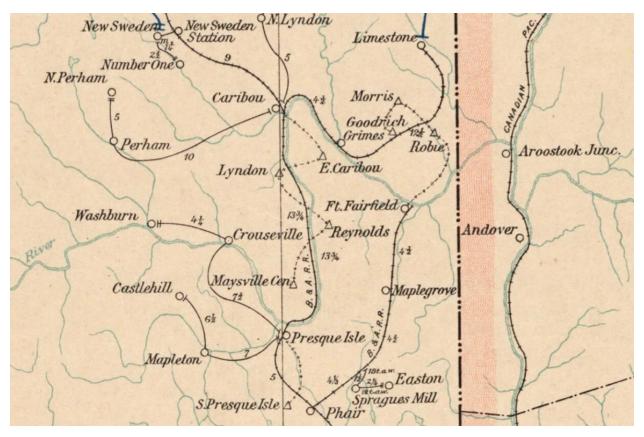

- 1. Crouseville Post Office opened on 25 July 1896 and closed on 2 April 2021.
- 2. East Washburn Post Office opened on 5 August 1874 and closed on 22 January 1895.
- 3. Salmon Brook Post Office opened on 24 March 1858 and on 25 November 1879 was renamed as Washburn Post Office.
- 4. Washburn Post Office (formerly Salmon Brook Post Office) opened on 25 November 1879 and is still operating.

In 1869, there were two post offices operating in Washburn: Salmon Brook, and East Washburn. (Source_ Post Route Map of the State of Maine, 1869. Courtesy of the University of North Texas Libraries: https://texashistory.unt.edu/ark:/67531/metapth298381/?q=postal)

In 1903, there were two post offices operating in Washburn: Washburn and Crouseville.
